A MOST CRUCIAL ELECTION

Mary Lou Gartner

November 2 is a most crucial election day! A pro-life voter's highest priority is following the pro-life principle that the direct and intentional killing of innocent human life is always wrong and is always non-negotiable. A pro-lifer should vote for the candidate who will best advance pro-life principles and must withhold their vote from a candidate who will do the most to harm this principle. Our nation's abortion policies today:

- result in death for millions of innocent children
- violate our nation's founding principles and jeopardize the future of our nation.
- test our faithfulness as people of God to follow His command to "Love thy neighbor as thyself."

We wish to restate that the intentional destruction of innocent human life, as in abortion and euthanasia, is not just one issue among many. All issues are not morally equivalent. The protection of human life from conception until natural death is the preeminent obligation of a truly just society. Abortion is an intrinsic evil. Support for an intrinsic evil disqualifies a candidate for public office. Inherently evil actions are those that fundamentally conflict with the moral law and can never be performed under any circumstances or for any reasons.

We must be "single issue voters" when that issue involves a fundamental right to life for a certain group of human beings, and there is only one morally legitimate position on that issue. For example, no person would vote for a candidate who, although "personally opposed to slavery," supported "a white man's right to choose" to own slaves. Similarly, we have a moral obligation to withhold our vote from any candidate who, although "personally opposed to abortion," supports: a woman's right to choose" to have her child killed before birth by abortion.

The right to life of all human beings is at the heart of all morality and the foundation of justice, which is the fundamental purpose of civil law. The protection of this right no more advances one religious viewpoint than do laws against murder, child abuse, racial discrimination, theft, etc. "Whatsoever you do to the least of my brethren, you do unto me." Matthew 25:40.

To help pro-life voters know the pro-life candidate LIFEPAC was formed in 1980 as an independent Political Action Committee. It is not a part of any political party or church. Their mission is to identify and support pro-life candidates. LIFEPAC can do things legally that churches may not. LIFEPAC include churches as part of the distribution efforts due to the fact that there are a higher majority of people that care about the sanctity of life among people of faith than the population as a whole. Since the church cannot endorse any candidates, but the people in the pews need this valuable information, many volunteers leaflet LIFEPAC flyers on cars in church parking lots. However, neither legally or to conform to their own church policy are the churches obligated to chase away those who are informing parishioners as to which candidates are pro-life.

In recent years neither the IRS regulations on what churches can or cannot do, nor the Catholic Churches Policies have changed. The only thing that has changed is that some Diocesan officials have decided to become more pro-active in suppressing information from LIFEPAC. As individuals we will continue to try and serve other people of faith by distributing information important to the vast majority in a way that the church itself cannot.

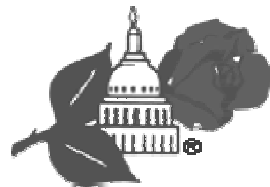

The LIFEPAC information is on page 3-4. You may copy this page to distribute to your family and friends or call Mary Lou 412-793-0807 for quantities of this material. No legal obligation exists to prevent third-party literature distribution on Church parking lots. No church can lose its tax exemption for what a third party does. This distribution is not only compliant with existing civil laws, but should be welcomed as an essential part of the Church's mission to help the reader vote for candidates for public office in a manner consistent with moral teachings.

ANNUAL MARCH MONDAY, JAN 24, 2011

The National March for Life is being held on Monday, January 24. This march is never held on a week-end because lobbying is a very essential part of this day. Buses are being arranged from every "nook and cranny" of southwestern PA. Please consider joining us for our 38th consecutive march by calling Mary Lou at 412-793-0807 for more information. See page 7 for the flyer for the Prayer Breakfast that always precedes this pilgrimage. We go in prayer to Washington to petition our elected representatives to protect those unable to protect their own lives. The complete list of buses leaving from this area will be published in the next Newsletter. Look for it in your mailbox the week of January 2.

KICKOFF FOR 40 DAYS FOR LIFE

September 22 – October 31

Enthusiasm, determination, joy and sacrifice are some of the themes we celebrate with 40 Days for Life. The people who came for the Kickoff Rally represented veterans and newcomers, clergy, students, families, and of course, counter protestors. The smiles on these photos tell the story.

More than 125 people came to pray, listen and declare that we will stay and we will pray at the doors of Pittsburgh's infamous Planned Parenthood for the next 40 days. Many churches have promised that their members would pray on special days.

If you would like to join us, go to www.40daysforlife.org/pittsburgh, or you

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Pro-life Friends,

So many pro-life activities to comment upon this month: 40 Days for Life, Life Chain, the wonderful PCUC banquet, the elections. What incredible effort has been put forth by so many!

But looking at what's ahead, what's next, this column will be dedicated to those heroes known as bus captains, headed to Washington D. C. this January 24, 2011. Through rain, sleet, ice storms and an occasional sunny day, bus captains handle the details. Thank you for bulletin announcements, reservation lists, fund-raising flea markets, parental permission slips, donuts and orange juice. Bus captains rely on God's good graces to get them where they need to be and then back again.

Leading the charge, the first thank you has to go out to Mary Lou Gartner, who organizes over 120 buses from PCUC area every year. I'm sure she has tales of past March for Life incidents that we would have to believe only because we heard it from her.

Then we have all the men and women who take the responsibility to safely organize the individual church, parish, school, or benevolent group into a paid for expedition to our Capitol. It's always an "adventure." Some have been doing such a wonderful job, making things work so smoothly, that we forget that each bus captain cannot control the weather.

And sometimes, we forget Who is ultimately in charge. A few years ago, with a dire forecast popping up at the last minute, I found my parish bus leaving with empty seats. A family of five forgot to call and cancel as well as those put off by the threat of bad weather. Of course, when we arrived at the March with the sun shining and comfortable temperatures, I asked God why we didn't fill our bus.

On the way home, as we were pulling out from our Brezewood stop, the bus driver received a mayday message from another driver whose bus was parked at an abandoned gas station with major problems. After asking our passengers for permission, the driver doubled back and picked up most of the grade school students, eager to get home. And we had room! It all worked out so well! I guess I got my answer.

We can only imagine how big and well funded the pro-abortion organizations are. Yet the pro-life side is winning hearts and saving lives just with faith, hard work, and an occasional fund-raiser.

Again, from People Concerned for the Unborn Child, thank you to everyone who works to put the March for Life together. You could run a small country.

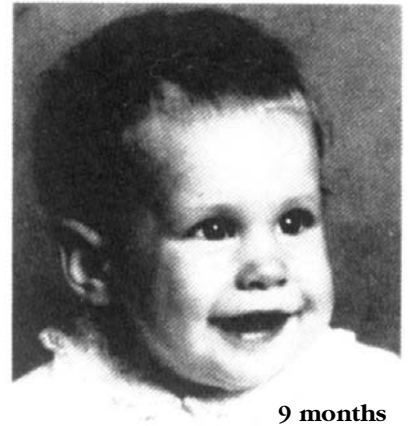

I send to all of you my prayers and best wishes for very Blessed Christmas and unending hope for abundant graces in the year ahead. God love you.

Beth

“HOLY FAMILY” a reminder for us that Jesus came for everyone. SCRIPTURE: “The virgin shall be with child and give birth to a Son and they shall call him ‘Emanuel,’ a name which means ‘God is with us.’” Matthew 1:23. GREETING: As we rejoice in the miracle of His birth, may the Lord of Life bless you this Christmas and throughout the coming year.

WELCOME PROLIFE MISSIONARIES

PCUC's New Castle Chapter recently met Paul Craig and Sara Tang, graduates of Franciscan University of Steubenville as pro-life missionaries for the Lawrence County area. Paul and Sara's work will be the embodiment of our Mission Statement, "...to speak for and act in defense of all innocent human life threatened by abortion, infanticide and euthanasia."

Primary focus for the missionaries for this year will be on promoting sexual purity/chastity among the young people of Lawrence County through Sunday Schools, CCDs and church youth organizations.

Brian Beal, executive director of Pro-Life of Mercer County, created and established the innovative position of "Pro-Life Missionary." Diane Marcella, New Castle Chapter Chairman, credits her advisory board for their vision as this much-needed program commences in their community.

BILLBOARDS IN EVERY NEIGHBORHOOD

It's a pleasant surprise to see a pro-life billboard in a new location on a regular basis. Send donations to keep them up: PA Foundation for Life, PO Box 12741, Pittsburgh 15241.

CHOOSE LIFE GRANTS TO CPCs

Proceeds from the sale of PA Choose Life license plates recently became the latest grants to local pregnancy support centers. Birthright of Pittsburgh in Allegheny County, Life Choices in Kittanning, Armstrong County, and Alternatives, Yes in Connellsville, Fayette County, each received $500.00 to help with programs for mothers and babies. In addition to lending support to pregnancy care centers, your purchase of a Choose Life license plate means that thousands more people will see the pro-life message more frequently. If you want an application, call PCUC 412-531-9272 or go to www.choose-life.org.
