PP HAS NO PLACE IN OUR CLASSROOMS

On the other hand, it would be better for anyone who leads astray one of these little ones... to be drowned by a millstone around his neck, in the depths of the sea.” Mt. 18-6

Early in May we learned that the Board of Education of the City of Pittsburgh and Planned Parenthood have a memorandum of understanding that will result in PP coming to the seventh and eighth grade classrooms in city schools to teach the PP brand of “decision making.” We also learned that only one member of the Board, Mark Brentley, raised any objections to the proposal. The rest of the board members sat mute.

On Monday, June 22, about 100 pro-life people from several points on the pro-life compass gathered in Oakland to pray at St. Paul Cathedral. From there we walked a short distance to the Pittsburgh Board of Education building. Inside, 12 pro-life city residents offered three-minute testimony, objecting to the board's proposal.

Outside the building, a large group prayed in silence as they walked seven times around the building, remembering Hebrews 11:31.

We are deeply grateful to Deacon Toby Gaines who held the reins of the “Millstone Awards” project and Mark Brentley, who blew the whistle. Thank you to each person who prepared and offered facts and figures on PP.

At this time the matter is not settled. Local residents, especially those with children in city schools, can still call board members or write to: Pittsburgh Board of Education, 341 S. Bellefield Ave., Pittsburgh, PA 15213.

COME! MEET JASON JONES

He will lift your heart and give you hope. You will know you are not alone in the battle for LIFE. We invite you to come and bring a Friend. Enjoy our Basket Auction and help us to honor a special person whose example is a beacon for all of us to follow.

Please see the Reservation Form on p. 8 and be sure to put your witness for LIFE in our Directory with a patron listing or an ad for your family, church or business. See p. 6 for ad/patron form.

PP NUMBERS STILL RISING

In recent weeks media outlets have reported a downturn in the number of abortions. Of course, Planned Parenthood claims the fame. Pro-lifers pointed to the life-saving work of the dozens of pregnancy support centers, many with ultrasound equipment. No one can deny that the “It's just a blob of tissue.” claim doesn't work. Even television commercials show the miraculous growth of a child in the womb.

The PA Department of Health has the last word. In 2013 PP killed 2366 babies. In 2014, the total was 2492. UPMC Magee was up from 680 to 701, mostly late term (4 to 6-1/2 months).

HAVE A CRIB?? GOT DIAPERS??

We can always use cribs that are in good condition and whose sides do not slide down.

If you have bought diapers lately, you know keeping your baby dry is a big job, and keeping up with your supply is quite pricey. If you can clip the coupons and purchase just one package, especially for infants through sizes 2, 3, and 4, thank you!

"RELIGIOUS BELIEFS...MUST CHANGE"

Presidential candidate Hilary Clinton's plans if she is elected: "... deep-seated cultural codes, religious beliefs and structural biases have to be changed."

The CEO of Planned Parenthood of the Heartland helped the Clinton campaign set up shop in Iowa.

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Friends for Life:

In dealing with the life issues, remember that students of death have given more attention to abortion than has been accorded most issues. The Death Peddlers insist that killing your child is a virtue, and we who denounce abortion as evil are merciless liars. We've all been hit with name calling to divert honest conversation. My personal favorite is "Jesus lovers on steroids" who want to force our beliefs on society. What Hypocrisy!

Abortion's slippery slope has led us to the chopping block of "death with dignity" laws being pushed or passed in every state, including PA.

Many political and social leaders say that in the near future "pro-life speech" may be labeled "hate speech," and we could be liable for prosecution. Nevertheless, we must always speak the truth.

Abortion profiteers are fed and nourished on greed and a political agenda conceived in lies. Meanwhile, tiny unborn Americans die, and the moral fabric of our beloved United States of America continues to erode.

HOWEVER
DON'T FORGET HOW THE STORY ENDS.

WE WIN !
BUT NOT WITHOUT SACRIFICES!

Christians are nourished with God's grace and His word. Prayer keeps us strong in the battle of good vs evil. Corruption in government and citizens who grow in apathy make our life commitment more and more challenging.

NEVER FORGET! WE NEED EACH OTHER!

I am excited to invite you to enjoy the company of like-minded people at PCUC's 2015 Pro-life Banquet on Sunday, September 20. We will welcome JASON JONES, A CELEBRATED SPEAKER, AND ENJOY AN EVENING OF SUPPORT, ENCOURAGEMENT, AND FUN.

PCUC NEEDS YOUR HELP!

PCUC needs your financial support to continue our work in a real mission field in America. PLEASE help by filling in and mailing the enclosed ad form for our banquet booklet.

Thank You! We'll see you at the Banquet!

Claudia Berthold, President

LADDER OF TRUTH, Inc.

Recently the Board of PCUC enjoyed a very special presentation given by Nancy Amarose. She showed us the program she offers for students in grades K – 8. During her 45-minute sessions, each geared for the specific academic level of students, Nancy uses stories, posters, sensory activities and prayers to teach children that they are very special and unique creations from God.

Programs are 45 minutes. Parent and teacher information is provided. Two or three classes may be combined. Accurate biological information is provided in a sensitive and loving format within the context of the biblical, moral and religious teachings of the Catholic faith.

To ask questions or see how you can schedule a program for your school, call Nancy at 877-556-9696.

LATE-TERM ABORTION BAN FILED

The U.S. Senate has filed the PAIN-CAPABLE UNBORN CHILD PROTECTION ACT. The bill number is S-1553, and it was referred to the Senate Judiciary Committee. Sen. Chuck Grassley is chairman of that committee.

The measure has at least 45 co-sponsors, including Pat Toomey of PA. Sen. Casey has not seen fit to co-sponsor this bill to protect babies from the excruciating torture of being dismembered, beheaded and ripped from the womb that should be the most protective place in the world.

We urge you to email or call Sen. Casey and ask him to co-sponsor S1553 or ask him to tell you why he is not supporting the bill. Sen. Toomey should hear our thanks and encouragement.

“YA NEVER KNOW”

by Bob Newman

We were down at the abortion mill at our usual time on Tuesday, May 19. This was the third time I was trying to hand the new pro-life bronze medallions to women/couples going in for an abortion.

Most of you have seen pictures of this medallion. It has a sonogram picture of a baby in utero with the words, “CHOOSE LIFE” on one side and “There's still time. Call 1-800-712-HELP” on the other.

Handing these coins out is a bit controversial as they are expensive ($2 each), and they don't have as much information as printed handouts. I do think the sonogram picture is worth a thousand words.

Well anyway, it has been tough getting people to take on of these coins. The 15-foot buffer zone around the door of PP doesn't help.

It was getting near 10 AM, the time when I usually leave, when a young couple approached the door. I stepped over the line and reached out saying, “Here, this might help.” Holding the door open with one hand, the young man reached back with the other and took the medallion.

As I was leaving, this same couple came out and crossed the street. I didn't think much about it and headed toward the parking lot.

Halfway there, a car slowly came by, the window opened and the girl who went into the mill yelled to me a simple, THANK YOU” and they drove off.

When I got to the lot Ron said, “What's the matter?” I said, “What?” and he said, “Why the tears?” I told him the story. Ron just said, “Ya never know.” facethetruthamerica.com>

Editor's Note: Each medallion costs $2.00. If you would like one to carry in your pocket or purse, just because “Ya never know,” you can stop at the office. Or look for Bob at 933 Liberty Avenue, downtown Pittsburgh, from 7:00-11:00 am every Tuesday, Friday and Saturday.

REV. JOHN VOJTEK – R.I.P.

was his greatest passion. He died on July 1.

Thank You!

KAREN MALEC – REST IN PEACE

After a brave battle with ovarian cancer, Karen Malec died on May 6. She was 60 years old. Karen's legacy is her outstanding advocacy on behalf of mothers and children. As President of the Coalition on Abortion/Breast Cancer, she gave us facts about the A-BC connection from experts, such as Joel Brind, Ph.D., and Chris Kahlenborn, M.D.

Karen could always count on bitter attacks from N.O.W., Planned Parenthood and the ACLU. Karen showed that the mother and her child in the womb should never be viewed as adversaries. R.I.P.

BISHOP TOBIN DOESN'T BACK DOWN

Bishop Thomas Tobin, a son of Pittsburgh but now Shepherd of Providence, RI., does not look for trouble, nor does he shrink from it.

Bishop Tobin told Gina Raimondo, Governor-elect of RI that he would not attend her Inauguration because of her stance on “the grave moral evil” of abortion. He said he would be offering Holy Mass at that time “to ask for God's blessings on our state, nation and public servants.”

In 2007 Bishop Tobin wrote privately to the son of the late Sen. Ted Kennedy, RI Rep. Patrick Kennedy, asking him to forgo Holy Communion because of his pro-abortion rights stance. Kennedy responded respectfully.

In 2009, after three years, Kennedy said the Bishop told him to skip communion. Kennedy's tone to the media led Bishop Tobin to respond, “I am disappointed and surprised that Congressman Kennedy chose to re-open the public discussion about...his reception of Holy Communion. I wrote to him personally and confidentially as a pastor addressing a member of his flock.”

In August 2013, Bishop Tobin told a group of Young Republicans he had ended his affiliation with the Democrat Party and joined the Republican Party. “I can't be associated structurally with that group, in terms of abortion and NARAL and Planned Parenthood...and the cultural destruction I saw going on...(at) last year's Democratic Party Convention. I had to change my affiliation.

PA RELIGIOUS GROUPS GET RELIEF

The U.S. Supreme Court issued an order on June 29 preventing the Obama administration from forcing religious groups in Pennsylvania to obey the HHS mandate that requires them to pay for abortion-causing drugs for their employees.

The Supreme Court in Zubik v. Burwell granted relief to a group of PA-based religious organizations, including Catholic Charities. The court said: “[T]he respondents are enjoined from enforcing against the applicants the challenged provisions of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act and related regulations pending final disposition of their petition for certiorari.”

In April, Justice Alito issued an interim order, protecting the charities while their case continued. The PA-based religious organizations join over 750 plaintiffs in other nonprofit cases that have been granted protection from the unconstitutional HHS mandate, which forces religious ministries to either violate their faith or pay massive IRS penalties.

Thank you to Bishop David Zubik and the Diocesan legal team for their immediate defense of our First Amendment rights and their undaunted determination to win this decision.

A DRAFT OPINION ON ROE V WADE

On June 18, the Christian Legal Society hosted Clark Forsythe, Senior Counsel for Americans United for Life, who discussed “A DRAFT OPINION OVERTURNING ROE V. WADE.”

In his first public criticism of the Supreme Court's decision in Dred Scott v. Sanford in 1857, Abraham Lincoln denied that the decision was “settled.”

Lincoln's analysis highlights some—just some—of the reasons why Roe v. Wade and Doe v. Bolton and the SCOTUS 1992 decision in Planned Parenthood v. Casey, may be more unsettled today than in the past.

In PP v. Casey, five justices declared Roe v. Wade to be settled law. In 2000 in Stenberg v. Carhart, a bare majority of five Justices applied Roe as though it was settled. But, in the most recent abortion case decided by the Court, Gonzales v. Carhart in 2007, a different majority of Justices applied the basic rules of Roe in a manner deferential to the states, causing some, again, to think that Roe was hanging by a thread.

The Pew Poll in January 2013 had to distort Roe by describing the abortion “right” as legalizing abortion only in the first trimester so as to find majority support.

Philly Alive is a coalition of pro-life organizations at the local, regional and national levels that is promoting Acts of Mercy for Children in the womb by a series of activities before, during and after the World Meeting of Families (WMF) in Philadelphia in September 2015. The purposes of these activities are to focus the intense spotlight of the WMF on the vast killing of children in the southwestern PA area, the region and the nation; reduce this killing as much as possible and bring renewal to the pro-life movement.

Visit Philly Alive on Facebook. Caution: there is at least one other site with this name, so take your time. PCUC is a member of the Pro-Life Coalition of Pennsylvania. Several groups from our Coalition in areas closer to Philadelphia will be involved in fuller measure. If you go to Philadelphia in September, look for Philly Alive activities.

TEACHER: NO TO PSEA! YES TO PCUC!

Linda Misja, a teacher in the Apollo-Ridge School District is suing the state's largest teachers union, the PSEA, over her union dues.

In 2012 Linda filed a religious exemption to paying a “fair share fee.” required of those who do not want to join the union but still benefit from the contract. She believes the PSEA supports causes that directly or indirectly advocate for abortion. The PSEA objects to Linda's choices for donations.

Linda's first designated choice is People Concerned for the Unborn Child. The PSEA said, “No.” They say giving to PCUC would be tantamount to sending your fees to a charity that furthers your religious beliefs. Since PCUC is not affiliated with any religion, that contention really does not hold water. It is because PCUC does not offer abortion to the people it helps.

We will be interested in the outcome of this case. The PSEA says PCUC is disqualified because we respect innocent human life.

Some of the information in this article is from Jodi Weigand's report in the T-R, June 19, 2015. Linda is part of our New Castle Chapter.

CARRY TRUTH IN YOUR PURSE OR CAR

PCUC speakers never go to a classroom without a good supply of the 4.25” x 5.5” yellow cards with “American War Casualties” on one side and “Why Do Women Have Abortions?” on the other. The cards list all American combat and combat-related deaths in the Revolutionary War through Vietnam. Hundreds of tiny crosses each represent 50 THOUSAND people killed. The card also marked the number of human beings killed by legalized abortion.

Recently John Lewandowski designed a revised version of the card. He updated the number of crosses and replaced them with tiny hearts that add up to 54.5 million killed as of January 2012. Since then the numbers have only increased.

We hope you will take some of these cards and use them to educate your family and friends about how many people we have lost since 1973,

We also have a card with a pretty picture and “PREGNANT & SCARED? Call 1-800-712-HELP” on one side and the names, locations, phone #s and www addresses of 12 local pregnancy centers.

Call the office or go to www.pcuc.org

THE PLAN IS WORKING

At the end of June a feature story aired on local broadcast media about how satisfying it is to be a working mom versus the mom who stays at home with her children. This time the working mom was the happier of the two.

Once again I pulled out the 1969 Memorandum to Bernard Berelson, President, Population Control by Frederick S. Jaffe, Vice-president of Planned Parenthood-World Population.

In that report, “Social Constraints” are (1) Restructure family: a) Postpone or avoid marriage, b) Alter image of ideal family size. How about “Encourage increased homosexuality, Educate for family limitation, Encourage women to work, (and the one we know mutates fish) Fertility control agents in the water supply.

TOP TEN REASONS TO FIGHT PP

1. PP sex instruction steals parents' rights to decide what their children learn about sexuality.
2. It grooms children for abuse by breaking down natural inhibitions and teaching them they can consent to dangerous sexual acts at a very young age.
3. It is “sex positive,” salacious, and instructs children they have a right to pleasurable sex. It includes sexual role playing and requires proficiency in sexual foreplay.
4. It is morally bankrupt. It is based on what a student “feels” he or she is “ready” for in the sexual realm, after instruction on how to have sex.
5. The curricula are highly guarded. Parents cannot view the full curriculum and instructional materials in privacy.
6. It only pays lip service to abstinence. It encourages sexual activity.
7. It normalizes dangerous and perverse acts like sadomasochism.
8. PP – the nation’s largest abortion chain—develops, promotes and profits from its sex instruction programs.
9. PP pushes for sex instruction for children from the earliest ages, saying they are sexual from birth—an idea straight from serial child molester Alfred Kinsey.
10. PP's claims of benefits of sex instruction are totally unproven. There is no scientifically sound study that validates any of its programs.
