KATIE SCORES AT PP

Katie O'Brien and her team spent a day in front of Planned Parenthood with a project she planned and directed. Her husband and her dad were "best helpers." They packed a rental truck with "baby stuff." Katie said:

"I had been worrying about the diaper drive for months, but not only were we protected from thunderstorms and meter maids and blessed with a bounty of donations, I think God was even more busy opening the hearts of people who don't normally consider "the other side." My favorite moment of the day was when the PP escort came over and asked what we were doing there. We explained that the PRC helps moms with diapers and wipes and clothes and any needs during and after their pregnancy. He put a few dollars in the bottle and took a donut. Also, a man walked past with a little girl. He said something about us trying to take away a woman's right to have an abortion. Later they returned, and we talked about our kids who are about the same age. Overall, we got many more positive comments than negative.

"Counting the late donations, we've collected 4,782 diapers, 4,734 wipes, $655.00, 195.6 oz, of formula, hundreds of baby and maternity clothes and blankets, several bottles of soap and baby lotion, a bathtub, a high chair, a hobby horse, a stroller, a crib mattress, two diaper bags and a few toys. And I'm praying that maybe some girl saw all the support there is for her and realized she's not alone and missed her appointment," said Katie.

That "donut" taken by the Planned Parenthood escort was an extra-fine sign of the thoughtful generosity of the pro-life people who stand and pray and offer "a better answer.

Thank you, Katie!

OCTOBER 23: PAUL KENGOR

On Sunday, October 23, at 1:00 pm, Paul Kengor will join us at St. Thomas More Family Life Center on Fort Couch Road in Bethel Park for our annual PRO-LIFE BANQUET.

Dr. Kengor goes beyond the headlines to study the newsmakers in contemporary culture. Politics takes a back seat to his interest in the Faith and philosophy of the men and women that many in our society admire as leaders. Dr. Kengor's books about Ronald Reagan, his associates, his influence on the winning of the Cold War and the fall of Communism are best-sellers.

He is a professor at Grove City College and the founder of the Center for Vision and Values.

TWINS SAVED IN FRONT OF PP

Nikki & Kari enjoy the sonogram pic.

Nikki offered a young woman a better choice than abortion. She spoke with gentle love, and saved three lives: a set of twins and their mom. Now all of us can help Nikki as she helps Kari to build a better future. Email Nikki : nbruni@40daysforlifepgh.

IT'S TIME TO VOLUNTEER

Thanks to LIFE PAC (see p. 3), we know the names of the pro-life candidates for the general election in November. Now is the time for all of us to choose a special candidate and volunteer to help him/her get elected.

Whether it's a Congressman, a PA Senator or Representative or the President, it's up to us to let the people in our lives know who are the pro-life candidates. And we must do it NOW!

YOUR VOTE IS CRITICAL TO OUR FUTURE

CENTER FOR MEDICAL PROGRESS

We suggest that you go to www.centerformedicalprogress.org and watch all of the CMP videos in their entirety. The media want only the latest sensational news, and Planned Parenthood wants only the profits from its abortion business.

Below is the address to hear an interview with David. Listen and share with everyone.

THE MAGEE PROJECT

Meredith Parente

The Magee Project is a campaign to encourage the restoration of a culture of life to Magee Womens Hospital with a first step of asking Magee to cease committing abortions.

In 2015, according to reports submitted to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Department of Health, 544 abortions were performed at Magee including 251 second trimester abortions. In 2014, 701 abortions were reported at Magee. Abortions are performed at Magee to 24 weeks. We believe that asking Magee to cease doing abortions is a perfectly reasonable request as polls indicate that the public is increasingly uncomfortable with abortion as technology has opened windows to the womb allowing us to see with our own eyes the humanity of preborn children. We began this project April 1, 2016, by asking volunteers to commit to praying at Magee Hospital for one hour, one day a month. Would you like to join us? If you would like to know more, see The Magee Project, on Facebook or contact TheMageeProject@gmail.com

PP HOSTS GATHERING IN PITTSBURGH

What are we to believe when a sub-headline says Planned Parenthood brought 1,000 volunteers to Pittsburgh to “fight restrictive abortion laws,” and the body of the article says “about 300 people attended the rally.”? How sad it is when the photo with the article features African-American women, when we know PP's founder, Margaret Sanger said that “colored people are like human weeds and are to be exterminated.” (Letter 12-10-1939).

The PA Dept. of Health reported that in 2014, 13,782 or 42.9% of abortions were to black or African-Americans. Blacks/African Americans are 10% of the population in PA. You do the math.

This, they say, was the largest gathering of volunteers for field training in PP's history. And this was a NATIONAL gathering?

*****

Congratulations to dear
Fr. Gerald Lutz on the 60th Jubilee of his Ordination to Priesthood

DEMS DEMAND END TO PP INQUIRY

Several top Democrats demanded that Rep. Paul Ryan end the special investigation into Planned Parenthood. Ryan shows no signs of letting up. The investigation is in response to videos produced by the Center for Medical Progress. According to the CMP, someone caught selling or purchasing human fetal tissue can face up to 10 years in prison and a fine up to $500,000.00. We urge Rep. Ryan to stick with the inquiry. Call him at 1-202-225-3031.

PLANNED PARENTHOOD'S SECRET AGENDA

Our July-August issue will have a report on how Planned Parenthood is trying to squeeze out all the independent abortion clinics. When smaller clinics close, they are replaced by PP. Some pundits predict that PP's goal is to be named as a department of the U.S. Government. Is this what we want in our country???

TIDBITS OF WISDOM FROM BETH

Beth Svirbel, President

*Experience is a teacher
And the thing that makes me burn
It always tries to teach me what I don't want to learn.*

Here's what I didn't want to learn. And Fr. Frank Pavone is a great, patient teacher.

You see, I'm always waiting for the clergy, pastors, elders, rabbis, imams, or any member of an institutional church to get in there and do my pro-life job. Some clergy are so faithful and effective doing all things pro-life. Wouldn't it be better if an ordained minister was on the sidewalk in front of Planned Parenthood on an abortion day? Won't they have a better way of convincing an abortion-bound woman to save the baby?

With the upcoming election, wouldn't a sermon from the pulpit, urging us to vote pro-life, be better than my anemic attempts to do the same? Wouldn't it be nice to just pray and sit still until November 8, letting the spokespeople of an institutional church do the campaigning? They could tell us who to vote for, right?

Sorry, experience and Father Pavone teach me that that's not how it works. The institutional church has the job of surviving, keeping the doors open for sinners like me. I'm sure that many clergyman or clergywoman wonders what he/she's doing running the strawberry festival, raising funds for the new furnace boiler. But with no new boiler, it's tough getting a crew in the pew when the snow blows down the center aisle of a place of worship. In an age of accepted atheists, our clergy is fighting the rising secular tide just to keep the doors open.

But what about the pro-life movement? Father Pavone suggests that there are two aspects of a belief: an institutional church and movements, like the pro-life movement. And I've learned that I can sit in the pew and whine that the Pope doesn't come to 933 Liberty Avenue or I can accept my responsibility to go and try my best, sometimes successful, most times not, to offer help and hope to any woman considering abortion.

Perhaps it's time to stop wishing and whining that someone else, a minister, pastor, rabbi, imam, whomever, does what is the job of laity. Dear clergy, support my efforts, but I've learned that they have to be my efforts. So it's back to the sidewalk, to the polling place, to learning all the best arguments that prove the pro-life ideology.

Thanks, Father Pavone; I'm learning...and America, too, is learning the pro-life message because everyone has to learn the truth, even if we don't want to face it. It's time and it's our job to take the pro-life truth to Planned Parenthood, Allegheny Reproductive or even Magee Hospital or wherever and whenever abortion is committed.

LOVE FOR LIFE IN UNIONTOWN

Thank you to the ladies at St. John the Evangelist Church in Uniontown. Your beautiful parish center seemed like "home" to everyone. The piles of diapers and baby items for the local pregnancy support center will make many moms happy, and their babies will be cozy and warm, thanks to your generosity.

"FORBIDDEN ZONE" STILL UNSETTLED

The TRIBUNE-Review on 6-2 reported that a federal appeals court said it cannot determine the constitutionality of (the buffer zone in front of Planned Parenthood on Liberty Avenue).

A three-judge panel for the U.S. Third Circuit Court of Appeals overturned a lower court ruling dismissing a challenge to the ordinance and sent the case back to Pittsburgh Federal Court for further development. (end of copy from T-R). Any citizen with a basic education knows that the sidewalks of America are a primary free-speech area. It is odd that courts would prohibit citizens from walking or talking on a specific sidewalk because OF THE SACRED BELIEFS IN HIS MIND. The only people who cannot walk in front of Planned Parenthood's yellow arch at 933 Liberty Avenue are those who may be seen and identified as pro-life.

As we watch this case proceed through the courts, it will be familiar because it bears the name of the director of "40 Days for Life," Nikki BRUNI.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES' ROSELIA

Catholic Charities has always helped women in need as they awaited the birth of their babies.

For many years Roselia House was a place of safety, security and comfort in the heart of Oakland. Churches throughout southwestern PA held fundraisers, diaper drives and baby food collections.

Now the house in Oakland is closed. Catholic Charities has leased apartments in a secure building in downtown Pittsburgh where women can stay through the birth of their infant and until the age of two.

Now Catholic Charities/Roselia is looking for items to maintain these women and their newborns as long as they stay at the site. Everything from shower curtains to trash bags is important.

For more information on how you can help, contact Lisa Feikema 412-325-6751 or 412-841-7724 or Email: lfeike@ccpgh.org.

INFANT JESUS GROUP CELEBRATION

Pro-lifers in Pittsburgh's eastern suburbs have, for the past ten years, met to discuss the life issues. Speakers with expertise in many areas of the pro-life battleground have come to churches in Penn Hills, Monroeville, Plum, Pitcairn, Verona, Churchill—any place they are invited.

Thank to Paula Smith, who is the director of Birthright in Pittsburgh and a frequent contributor to the PITTSBURGH CATHOLIC, the group recently celebrated their Tenth Anniversary. Fr. Joe Luisie celebrated Mass at North American Martyrs Church, where he is pastor. After Mass we went to King's Restaurant for breakfast and fellowship.

If you would like to host a meeting of the local group, call the PCUC office and we will help you make arrangements.

PP SUSPECT UNFIT FOR TRIAL

Robert Lewis Dear, who admitted to killing three people at a Planned Parenthood facility in Colorado Springs, was found incompetent to stand trial. He will be indefinitely confined to a state mental hospital. Charged with 179 counts, including first-degree murder, the charges will remain until a judge deems him competent to stand trial.

SATANISTS MOCK PRO-LIFE VIGIL

As pro-lifers prayed the Stations of the Cross outside a Michigan abortion mill on Good Friday, five members of the Satanic Temple arrived on the street. They openly mocked the Passion of Christ. Satanic Temple's national spokeswoman Andrea Potti (a.k.a. Jex Blackmore) donned a crown of thorns and a fake pregnancy belly while dragging a large wooden cross.

Potti was flanked by two Satanists wearing suit jackets bearing the names of pro-life Michigan lawmakers. The men pretended to scourge Potti in a scene self-described as "Sanctions of the Cross."

The pro-life vigil was part of a nationwide event organized by the Pro-Life Action League of Chicago.

QUADS ABORTED WITH ARMS ENTWINED

"The first baby fell into the toilet," the unnamed woman wrote. As they got up to walk to the operating room, two babies fell out and were hanging from her. The arms of the perfectly formed lifeless baby boys were wrapped around each other. The fourth baby had had to be suctioned out of her. He came out in pieces.

"I remember sobbing with a co-worker as we sorted through the remains of the fourth baby boy in the POC lab. We cradled the tiny intact babies in our arms and cried for them. I knew that I could no longer do this work. I was done," she resolved.

She quit her job that day and, soon afterwards, helped four of her former colleagues leave the industry, as well. Dustin Siggins and Abby Johnson contributed.

SIDEWALK ADVOCATES SAVE LIVES

Thanks to a generous donor, our Sidewalk Advocates will have helpful, most appropriate handouts for women and men to whom they offer "a better answer than abortion" at the doors of Planned Parenthood on Liberty Avenue, downtown.

Kathy Laslow has volunteered many hours to gather and train Sidewalk Advocates using the methods in the manual used by our team. If you would like more details about this life-saving mission, call 412-486-2319.

WOLF WILL VETO DISMEMBERMENT BAN

Saying it would be a "step backward for women," PA Gov. Tom Wolf promised to veto PA House Bill 1948, introduced by Rep. Kathy Rapp. Wolf, we must recall, was an abortion mill escort. He does not say why a ban on this cruel and unusual means of killing babies would be a "step backwards," but his naming a PP board member as his chief-of-staff and his recent welcoming of Cecile Richards, president of PP shows where he stands.

15,000 AT CROATIA'S MARCH FOR LIFE

Participants in the demonstration included the wife and two daughters of Croatia's Prime Minister, Tihomir Oreskovic. Mrs. Sanja Oreskovic stated that "every prudent person chooses life over death."

Along the route of the March about 200 extreme feminists and left wing groups shouted insults and vulgarities at March participants. Those in the March responded with chants of "life, life." They sent kisses to the culture of death protestors. Source: LifeSiteNews, 5-24-16

JOYFUL AT OUR LADY OF JOY

Sandra Strong knows how to throw a party. She planned the cute invitations, fine food and drink, arrangements for special guests as well as games, favors and a call for baby items. She made cute, table decorations, and even though Sandy is the fastest BINGO caller you will ever meet, every game had a winner.

Catholic Charities' Roselia Center, Women's Choice Network, PCUC and 40 Days for Life shared in the beautifully wrapped profusion of gifts for babies. The parishioners of Our Lady of Joy gave abundantly so that many babies will be snug and warm, and their moms will be so very grateful.

MURDERED BECAUSE SHE REFUSED ABORTION

Zachaeus, her three-year-old, was the love of her life. When Candace Pickens became pregnant again, she had no intention of having an abortion. She worried that her abusive boyfriend would object to her decision.

On May 12 she was shot in the head at point-blank range. Beside her was her son, badly injured but clinging to life. He lost his left eye, but he's doing better than doctors expected.

Police have charged Nathaniel Dixon with first degree murder of Candace and her unborn child. The investigation continues.

Family members have not set up a "Go Fund Me" account for Zacheus. They ask only for prayer.

LIFE CHAIN REMINDER

If you are hoping to have a LIFE CHAIN in your town on Sunday, October 2, it's not too soon to call PCUC with questions or information on details. Go to www.LifeChain.net, and you can see details to help you plan. We hope every town in the U.S. will join us.

On Saturday, October 1, Nikki Bruni, director of 40 Days for Life Pittsburgh, will be the speaker at the Magnificat Prayer Breakfast. Nikki's journey is a beautiful lesson for all of us. More information: go to www.magnificatpittsburgh.org or call Kay Burkot, 724-772-6749.

WV BANS DISMEMBERMENT ABORTIONS

Congratulations!

West Virginia is the third state to ban dismemberment abortions – tearing babies limb from limb.

The People of Pennsylvania must be sure our lawmakers and our Governor know that we will not rest until the same law passes in PA. So far, Kansas, Idaho, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Alabama and Nebraska will protect babies from this horrid slaughter.

Tom Wolf was an abortion mill escort. He made sure women did not talk to pro-life sidewalk advocates who offered the choice of life for their child. He says he will veto this ban if it is passed by the PA General Assembly.

Let us contact our PA Representatives and Senators frequently. REMEMBER: They count the calls. Be sure to leave your name.

PURE PRO-ABORTION GIBBERISH

Any government that can tell a woman she can't have an abortion, can tell her she has to have one.

There is not one example in this country of the federal government, or any state legislature, making something illegal and then forcing people to do it. Also, when abortion was illegal, neither the federal nor any state ever forced women to have them.

In fact, the only way our government would ever have the power to force women to have abortions is for abortion to remain legal.

IF ABORTION IS MADE ILLEGAL, WOMEN WILL GO TO JAIL

More nonsense! Even when abortion was illegal, it was the abortionist who committed the crime, not the woman.

When an abortionist was brought to justice, the woman who had the abortion was a witness to the crime.
