

Did you miss me?

I'm a day late with this update!

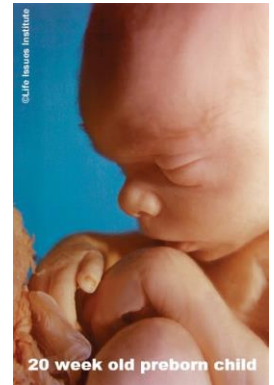

This will be the last weekly update for The Magee Project til after the 40 Days for Life. I strongly encourage you if you have not been involved with the 40 Days for Life before to sign up for both the national and local updates. You will be encouraged!

August marks the end of the first official four months of The Magee Project!

What started as one or two people going once a week or so to pray at Magee has turned into over seventy people volunteering to take an hour to keep up a daily prayer presence at Magee since April.

Even now, few people at Magee are aware of the battle being waged in prayer. We've done little to make our presence known, focussing instead on taking our requests to God to build a firm reliance on Him before moving forward.

While our "official" presence at Magee is suspended for the 40 Days for Life, several of us will continue to go to pray and if you are able to stop by any time to do so, thank you! If you are interested in helping in any other way to continue to grow the project and work on preparations for the Jericho Walk next spring, just let me know!

Action Points:

- Continue to pray for the preemies at Magee, Jesse & Joel, and at West Penn, Ellis
- Continue to pray for the abortion providers
- Continue to pray for the church and pastors in Pittsburgh
- Participate in the 40 Days for Life campaign, <http://40daysforlifepittsburgh.com>

Please continue to pray for these known and probable abortion providers at Magee and elsewhere in Pittsburgh

Words are completely inadequate to tell you how blessed I am to have worked with you these first months of The Magee Project!

Thank you and God bless you!
